Description:

Review

"Twenty years ago, Faiola made her first batch of soap. What began as a hobby turned into a successful business selling both handmade soap and soapmaking supplies. In her first book, Faiola provides a comprehensive guide to producing cold-process soap. After a brief overview of the chemistry of soapmaking, she dives into supplies and safety and provides a basic recipe for crafters who can't wait to get started. Once novices have a few batches of soap under their belts, they can try one of the 30 variations described. Each recipe includes step-by-step directions and photographs. Further information, including videos of the soapmaking process, is available at the author's website. VERDICT "Faiola's enthusiasm for her subject is apparent, and with her guidance, beginners will easily take to this craft." — Library Journal

Review

"Whether you are curious about making your own soap, or are looking for some soapy inspiration, Soap Crafting is so full of great ideas and gorgeous photos you won't be able to resist the urge to pick up a stick blender! Anne-Marie Faiola has condensed her many years of soapmaking experience into this new book that covers everything from the basics to the beautifully complex (like a 12-color swirl! Wow!). You can't go wrong with the clear instructions and plenty of inspiring photos. If you love soapmaking, you'll love this book. If you don't love soapmaking, get this book and you soon will!" — Ruth Esteves, co-owner of The Nova Studio and Sirona Springs Handmade Soap, and author of Coloring Soap Naturally
